TAKES THE HAROLD STAKES IN A CANTER WHILE CONCEDING MUCH WEIGHT.

Ladies' Day and Fine Weather Bring a Big Crowd to Latonia-More Bidding Up of Selling Race Winners.

Cincinnati, O., June 23.—J. W. Parrish's crack two-year-old Bulse continued his perfect score today at Latonia when he accounted for the Harold Stakes, worth $2,750 net to the winner, over a crack band of juveniles, Jack O'Dowd taking second place and Cane Run third. By finishing fourth Big Smoke saved his stake. The winner was much the best and showed the way from the rise of the barrier, increasing his advantage in the stretch to win as his rider pleased. He was coupled with Dr. Moore because of both being trained by W. J. Young, and the pair ruled an overwhelming favorite. Dr. Moore was a contender in the early part of the race, but retired suddenly when straightened out for the stretch racing.

Ladies' day and ideal weather, coupled with the good card down for decision, caused an immense crowd to be on hand, the fair sex being particularly well represented. The small fields that started in most of the races accounted for wholesome and close contests. The bettors fared well, most of their selections seering.

All the members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission are expected to be on hand tomorrow when the appointment of a handicapper to succeed the late Edward Maginn will be made. Other business that probably will occupy the attention of the commission includes the Butwell case, the appeat of G. W. Innes, through an attorney for a review of his case at a later date, and several other racing matters, W. H. Shelley, who was regarded as certain to receive the appointment of handicapper, is not desirous of taking the position. His wishes will likely be respected and he will remain as clerk of the scales.

Prior to the racing this afternoon the horses of T. J. Brown were disposed of by auction in the paddock. Coppertown went to R. J. Powers for $375. Altamaha to H. C. Coffey for $800 and Undaunted was sold to W. C. Lawrence for $1,550.

Jockey Kederis requested a hearing from the stewards this afternoon, with a view to securing a modification of the suspension of ten days imposed on him by the stewards for his Acis, winner of the closing dash today, was bid up from $500 to $1,205 and bought in. R. D. Williams and G. C. Baker did the bidding. In retaliation for the runup of Acis, C. J. Brockmiller claimed Old Ben for $950.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

H. Cavanaugh, who is riding on tracks, is 40 years of age.

Jockey W. Ural has left Jamaica for Hamilton where he intends to ride free lance. Ural is rapidly picking up weight.

Hodge will be among the Latonia nominations to the Suburban Handicap, and if favorably handicapped, will be taken east to try for its honors.

The Gerst horses will probably be given a rest after the Latonia meeting ends and will be quartered at Douglas Park until the Kentucky fall campaign opens.

The Finn, Housemaid, Iron Duke, Adams Express, Azyiade and Striker made up the Hallenbeck shipment from New York to Hamilton. R. E. Watkins shipped Barnegat and Cliff Feld in the same car.

Trainer J. E. Nash has arrived at Jamaica from altimore after racing his horses on the half-inde-acks through Maryland. When the last of the eetings were over Nash turned his string out until

W. W. Darden has increased his breeding stude by securing the two good race mares, Flora Fina and Trifler, both of which have been mated with Darden's successful sire, Ivan the Terrible. Flora Fina won several big stake races during her racing career and is a daughter of Flora Pomona, a Kentucky Oaks winner. Ivan the Terrible is now getting in Kentucky the chance he deserves as, with his opportunities, he ranks as one of the most successful of present-day sires. cessful of present-day sires.

SPRING BOARD CONDEMNED TO RETIREMENT.

As a result of his poor showing in the Newtown Selling Stakes. Spring Board, one of the best sprinters in the early part of last year, will spend the rest of his days in the prosaic occupation of drawing a buggy on the Chesterbrook Farm of his owner, Capt. E. B. Cassatt. The Aeronaut gelding had his last chance to prove that his victory the other day was not a fluke and when he raced home behind such moderate performers as wanda Pitzer and Harry Shaw. Captain Cassatt announced that he would be shipped to the farm and utilized as a buggy horse. At that he has more than paid his way, as the following chronicle of his racing shows:

STROMBOLI'S KINGS COUNTY HANDICAP.

Belmont Crack Wins in a Canter-Outlook Beater by a Bad Start-Charlestonian Lame.

New York, June 23.—The Kings County Handicap, for three-year-olds and over at one mile and a sixteenth, which was today's stake offering, only attracted three starters, Stremboli, Charlestonian and Surprising, Sam McMeekin being withdrawn. The Belanont representative Stremboli ruled at prohibitive odds and made good with consummate ease. Surprising made the pace with Charlestonian second to the three-eighths post, where Dugan called on the son of Fair Play and be soon raced into an easy lead. From there to the finish he was only cantering. The race was worth $2,100 net.

Little Dipper, away flying, raced her opposition dizzy in the first race and won cantering. Favour, a good looker, raced into second place.

Jockey Lilley's failure to get away with Outlook was responsible for the defeat of that filly by Ethan Allen in the third. Outlook was the medium of heavy support by the talent. When the barrier went up she was far behind the others. Lilley sent his mount along in pursuit and she finished a creditable second.

The largest field of the day faced the barrier in the fifth race, with Mamie K, and Fenmouse receiving the bulk of the public support. The latter proved an easy winner after Plantagenet had led to the stretch turn.

Charlestonian pulled up lame after his race in the Kings County Handicap.

The Cleveland Stable will ship six horses from Jobstown, N. J., to Aqueduct within a few days, N. K. Beal has arrived from Maryland with El Oro, Richard Langdon and a two-year-old.

Jockey Buxton was suspended for the remainder of the meeting for rough riding in yesterday's fourth race, in which he had the mount on Celandria.

John Sanford's string of sixteen horses has arrived at Belmont Park. The majority of them are two-year-olds.

CONNAUGHT PARK'S MEETING FINISHED.

Fountain Fay Defeats Kingly in the Chateau Laurier Handicap Because Best Ridden.

Handicap Because Best Ridden.

Ottawa, Ont., June 23.—The closing day of the Connaught Park meeting attracted a large gathering to the track. The program was a well balanced one, with the Chateau Laurier Handicap, $1,000 added, as the feature. The conditions of the race called for a journey of one mile and a sixteenth, The race furnished a good contest, the winner turning up in the Thorncliffe Stable's Fountain Fay, which came from behind in the stretch and, wearing the favorite, Kingly, down, just managed to get up in the final stride to win by a nose. Kingly ran a capital race and probably would have won had kennedy ridden a stronger finish. Kingly was outrun to the first turn, where he was taken to the outside, and on the backstretch he was rushed to the front. He withstood a challenge from Fountain Fay while rounding the far turn, and drew away into an easy lead at the eighth post. Then Kennedy evidently thought that he bad the race won, as he took his mount under slight restraint and Kingly slowed down.

Close finishes were the order, the winners in a majority of the races scoring by small margins.

Jockey Ural, who arrived from New York yesterday, neglected to put in an application for a license at yesterday's meeting of the Canadiam Racing Associations, which means that he will be unable to ride at Hamilton. The next meeting is scheduled for July 8 at Fort Eric, and many of the cases that came up at Ottawa were passed over until then for final consideration.

Steward Joseph A. Murphy announced that jockey F. Coleman had been suspended for an unsatisfactory if the canadian particular train made up of fifteen cars carrying horses left Connaught Park at 8 o'clock tonight for Hamilton. William Walker and S. R. Howser have decided to rest their horses and save them for Fort Eric. Mr. Walker's two-year-old Larkin bids fair to make year their horses and save them for Fort Eric. GREAT WASTE OF HORSES IN WAR.

The following from the "Cape Times" will convey some idea of the demands of war on horses required for cavalry purposes:

"Buyers from England and France are scouring Argentina for cavalry horses to be used in the war. It is said that orders for 300,000 horses have aiready been received, and that these orders will be duplicated in the near future. It is estimated that the sales will ultimately reach twenty million dollars. Thousands of horses have aiready been shipped, and steamer loads of them are now moving out over the ocean on the road to sudden death. It is said that the average life of a horse on the battlefield is only three days, and it makes one's heart sick to think of the slaughter of such animals as this country is raising.

Sale of thoroughbred stock every spring which brings in $1,500,000 and upwards for colts sold. Sometimes it runs as high as $2,000,000. I have the figures of the laier sales from the Agricultural Society of Argentina. In 1907 the amount realized for 335 colts was more than $500,000, while in 1910. 483 colts were sold for upward of $1,500,000. "At that sale some of the colts brought as much as $12,000 each; and in 1910 one yearling sold for $16,000 and another for $19,000. During that same year, one of Dinnond Jubblee's colts brought $15,000 and another $13,000. Within a period of seventeen years the average price of yearlings at these sales has steadily risen. In 1903 it was $600, while since then it has risen to $3,450 per colt. These prices are for yearlings only, and they show what the Argentina has been doing to improve its horses of the thoroughbred strain. As it is anow, there are about 70,000 thoroughbreds in the country, and there are something like 400 thoroughbred stallions and 3,000 broodmares in service, with an output of 1,500 pedigreed colts per annum.

"Returning to the demand for horses for the European cavalry, the supply of the Argentine horse service, with an output of 1,500 pedigreed colts per annum.

"Returning to the demand for horses for the European cavalry, the supply of the Argentine horse flesh is more than one-third as large as that of the United States. According to the latest figures, the world's total of horses is about $8,000,000, and of these one-tenth are feeding on the Argentine pampas." The United States has about $2,000,000, and formany and Austria have about $6,000,000. France $5,000,000, and Great Britain $2,000,000. Canada has about $2,200,000. Australa as like number, and Argentina about $8,500,000. Puring the Boer war many thousands of horses were shipped from Buenos Aires to South Africa, and the outlook is that if the sea route can be kept open for the allies a large proportion of the present supply will go to Great Britain and France."—London Sporting Life.

SOME OLD-TIMERS OF THE TURF.

Latonia. Ky., June 23.—Des Dressen, one of the inside office men in the administration building at Latonia, has had given him by a friend, an ancient program of the spring race meeting held at the Buckeye course in Cincinnati in 1868. The book gives the stake races run at the meeting, which was of five day's duration with three races, the greatest number run on any afternoon of that meeting. The program shows J. H. Smith as secretary and of the many nominators of horses in the stakes at that meeting only two are now allve, namely George Cadwalader and John Loud, both of whome are in daily attendance at the Latonia track, the former being at present in the service of the Latonia Jockey Club.

With the exception of W. T. Woodard, Cadwalader is probably now the oldest turfman at the Latonia course. He was a famous race rider in his day and rode races for Joe Bosworth as early as 1853. He won his first stake race for LR. A. Alexander priving him $300 for his ride in that race. From a jockey he graduated into a skillful trainer and in the long ago raced many good horses one of which. Pompey Payne, was sold for $10,000, a big price in those days. This veteran horseman still enjoys good health and looks like he has a chance, with his old friend of other times, James Shy, to live out a full century.

John Lond is another veteran that is still in good health, who figured among the nominators in the stakes at the Buckeye track in 1868, though the best horse he ever raced was the staying mare Lida Stanhone, which did not come to the tracks to race until the early eighties.

TURF TALK OF THE DAY IN KENTUCKY.

Latonia, Ky., June 23.—While Jefferson Livingston's English colt Fleuro ran unplaced in the two-year-old race won by Hops at Latonia Saturday, he acted like he did not fancy heavy going and will probably run a much better race in the Cincinnati Trophy on Saturday, July 3, provided that big two-year-old Latonia race is run over a fast rack. At that Fleuro moved up around the stretch turn like he would come on to victory Saturday, but seemingly at once floundered in the going and fell back out of contention. He is an extraordinarily good-looking youngster, and it can be set down that he has by no means as yet shown his real racing form.

Star Jasmine showed her high class in the Merchants' Stakes, Saturday, and will now be given some consideration for her engagement in the Independence Handicap which is set to be run on the closing day of the present Latonia meeting. The Merchants' Stakes was the twenty-first victory for this good mare. She has been prominent as a winner ever since she came on the turf as a two-year-old. At that age she won the Fountain of Youth Stakes at Jacksonville, Fla., and ran second to Calisse in the Clipsetta Stakes at this track. The race she won Saturday she ran second in 1914 and in addition this season she was third in the Inaugural Handicap won by Prince Hermis on the opening day here. So far this year she has only been unplaced twice in eight starts. Her record since the beginning of ber career is so creditable that it is detailed in full in the table below:

Year. Age. Sts. 1st. 2d. 3d. Won. 1911.

. Age. Sts.
. 2 17
. 3 10

1914 ... 5 14 7 0 1 5.330
1915 ... 6 8 3 1 2 3.610
It will thus be seen that in her five seasons of racing so far, to date, this daughter of Odgen has earned $16,249 in stakes and purses.

T. C. McDowell, her owner, has had marked encees with mares in racing. He first came to the track with the flying Maid Marian, which he later sold to Chris. Smith of Yo Tambien fame, while since he has raced Kitty Cline, Rush, Spirituelle, King's Daughter, Elien-a-Dale, Bracegridle, Advantage and Waterblossom. Advantage was the only one of the number that did not live to race beyond her two-year-old form.

The book program of the Windsor Jockey Club has been extensively distributed among the horsemen at Latonia by Frank Bruen. The present book contains all the conditions of the races to be run at the first meeting, which begins on Wednesday, July 14, and, ends on Wednesday, July 21. There are seven races each day. On the opening day the feature event is the Frontier Handicap for three-year-olds and over, with $4,000 added, and that afternoon the Windsor Jockey Clup last year; Royal II., winner of the Kentucky Handicap; Great Pritain, winner of the Latonia Derby, and such other high-class performers as Bradley's Choice, Black Toney, John Gund, Emerson Cochran, King Hamburg, Little Nephew, Little String, Rancher, Donerail, Superintendent, Waterbass, Pandean, Slumber II. and Harmonicon.

During this Canadian track's first meeting the other stake races to be run off are the Edenwold, with $1,500 and Silver Plate added; the Windsor Double Event for Dominion-bred foals, with $1,500 added and also a piece of valuable plate, and the D. & C. Stakes, with $1,500 added, the latter being the feature race of the closing day of the first meeting.

The book just out also contains the stake nonnactions for the second meeting, which begins August 14 and ends August 21. Great racing is expected at the two summer meetings at this popular canadian track this season as it marks the introduction to its patrons of the pari tracks.

The many friends of Theodore Abadie, who raced such good horses as Samuel R. Meyer, Tom King and Falcada, will regret to learn that this turfman's condition has not improved since his removal to the Eastern Kentucky Asylum and his case is regarded as hopeless by the physicians there. His demise in that institution is thought to be only a question of a short time.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

Originating in the old volcanoes of the Cocopah mountains, the granite backbone of Lower California, a seismic convulsion shook and rattled the Imperial valley of California last night, and today its cluster of little cities are partially in ruins. Buildings were rent asunder. Fire did its part and the damage is estimated at more than $1,000,000 in the first reports coming to hand after the restoration of wire communication. Sharps Heading, the principal and controlling unit of water supply for the Imperial Valley irrigation system, sagged and settled under renewed quakes. Further shocks might break the heading and paralyze the entire water system of the valley.

SOME OF THE IRISH WERE THERE.

A touch of the Emerald Isle hovered over Overland Park yesterday. It came with a spirited discussion between two sons of Erin as to the relative racing merits of Lady St. Patrick and Irish Ann. They were standing in one of the mammoth stables and a large crowd gathered to lear the arguments, which wound up in a mutual conclusion that the former horse held the advantage in names. The fockey boards were raised a few moments later and showed that in the races to come there were scheduled to ride jockeys Kelley, Ryan, Donovan, McGraw, McFaggart, Nolan, and there appeared the name "J. Murphy." He's a colored jockey from Kentucky and says he doesn't know how he got his name. Finnigin, Namie McDee, Baby Lynch, Irish Ann, J. Hennessey's Sam Connor, Ed Cudihee and J. McCarthy's Brighouse were among the prominent racers during the afternoon's events. Cudihee being a long shot and Finnigin one of the speed artists which finished in the second race,—Denver Rocky Mountain News.
